Train the
TRAINER
SUMMIT

16-18 May 2014

Join the Elite Team of Fathers
from all across Australia training
Aussie Fathers to be great Dads

‘The Tops’ Conference Centre Stanwell Tops NSW

The Dads4Kids Train the Trainer Summit is all about helping fathers achieve extraordinary results for their children and make the world a better place, all at the same time.

Scientific research shows that the best way to learn is to train others. As men coach and teach others, the principles of fathering excellence become embedded in their own life.

After completing the SAS style Dads4Kids Train the Trainer Summit each participant will become an Associate Trainer. This will allow each graduate to organise and conduct their own Dads4Kids 10 week Fatherhood Mentoring Courses called 'Good to Great'. For more information and download a Prospectus go to: www.dads4kids.org.au/greatDads\_trainTheTrainer.html

Each time a Dads4Kids Summit graduate trains a group of fathers they will progress a level. Facilitating one course gives the qualification of Qualified Trainer. Facilitating two courses gives the qualification of Advanced Trainer, three courses Associate Coach, four courses Qualified Coach and five courses Master Coach.
